STORM FRONT - WEEKLY DIGEST

2016 WEEK 3

CADET

Cadets scored twice in their first game on the turf at Pinnacle High but couldn't overcome the fast start by the Firebirds, dropping the contest to the Firebirds 25-12.

JUNIOR PEE WEE

Both the Jaguars and Storm were looking for more offense this week after suffering shutout losses last week. Defense again was the theme, with the home Jaguars eeking out the win 12-8.

PEE WEE

Not even the Storm's new sideline coolers could cool off the Pee Wee's as they continue to roll over opponents. Everyone got involved in the 49-0 romp over the Outlawz of Valor. The Storm has outscored the competition 77-0 the last two weeks. Come out and support the Pee Wee team this week as they face the Red Raiders at home. Each team is 3-0, neither has given up a defensive score, with the Red Raiders outscoring their opponents 152-0 to start the season.

JUNIOR MIDGET

The Junior Midget team showed poise and team unity this week as they faced a superior Red Army team. The boys were outmatched but not outclassed in the 58-0 loss, marred by 7 personal fouls by the Red Army team.

14U

14U bounced back against the Gladiators, breaking out of their offensive rut, scoring 5 times in their 36-18 win on the grass at Pinnacle field. The Storm broke open a close game in the 4th quarter, scoring 3 times, sealing the victory with a nice TD run by Zack Hartunian. The bucket hat clad coaching staff challenged the team and the boys came through in dominating fashion.

All of our Storm teams are in action this weekend, including the Cadets, Jr. Pee Wee and Jr. Midgets all at home.
